Hoc signo Fortuna.

BALTIMORE—THURSDAY, AUGUST 9, 1827.

Announcement of the Drawing.

We have the pleasure to announce, that the drawing of the GRAND LITERATURE LOTTERY of MARYLAND, will take place in the City of Baltimore, on Wednesday the 17th of OCTOBER, and will be entirely completed on that day—One drawing only.—The scheme will be found on the next page. It has received the most decided approbation, as being the MOST BRILLIANT now before the public, and well arranged; the Capitals consisting of 20,000 DOLLS.—10,000 DOLLS—besides no less than TEN OF TWO THOUSAND DOLLS. EACH—the minor capitals are numerous, and in a large variety of denominations. Our usual prompt attention will be given to the orders of our distant friends, whose letters should be forwarded without delay.—We have fixed the drawing for the above named day, in order to allow sufficient time for the execution of orders, some of our customers having complained of not being able to procure tickets in some of our late schemes, in consequence of the day of drawing having been fixed too early for their commands to reach us.

Whole Tickets . $5 00 | Quarters . . . $1 25

Halves 2 50 | Eighths 62

* * ORDERS from any part of the United States, either by mail (post paid) or by private conveyance, enclosing the Cash or Prizes in any of the Lotteries, will meet our accustomed prompt attention.

Address to

J. I. COHEN, JR. & BROTHERS,
Baltimore

10 prizes of $2000

Besides the above brilliant parcel of Prizes, there are also Capitals of 20,000 and 10,000 DOLLS. in the popular scheme of the Grand Literature Lottery—the drawing will take place under the superintendence of the Commissioners appointed by the Governor and Council of State. The prizes, which as usual are subject to a deduction of fifteen per cent. are regularly payable sixty days after the drawing, but as heretofore can be had at COHEN'S OFFICE the moment they are drawn.

The Official List of Prizes

in the LITERATURE LOTTERY will be published in this Gazette, and will be forwarded gratis, to a 1 who procure their tickets or shares from COHEN'S OFFICE. Those who wish the list to be sent to them, will please signify the same when they send on their orders.

It will be recollected that in the LAST LOTTERY drawn in Baltimore, the great Capital Prize, besides more than half of those of minor denomination, were ALL SOLD AT COHEN'S OFFICE, and where the CASH was, as usual, instantly paid on presentation of the fortunate tickets. We anticipate the pleasure of distributing the Capitals also in the new scheme, amongst our friends both in town and at a distance.

RHEUMATISM.—We learn from the Adams' Centinel that Samuel R. Smith, of Gettysburg, Adams county, Pennsylvania, has discovered a certain cure for that excruciating, and heretofore supposed incurable disease, Rheumatic Pains.

The Notes of all Specie paying Banks are received at COHEN'S OFFICE at par, in payment for tickets or shares in the Grand Literature Lottery, being the only scheme at this time announced to draw—it will take place punctually on the day advertised, say the 17th OCTOBER.

No. 114
Market St.

Strangers and others are respectfully reminded (in order to prevent mistakes) that COHEN'S OFFICE (please observe the spelling) is at No. 114 Market street, Baltimore, and in calling, sending or directing, they will be particular in noticing the same.

Interesting to Emigrants into the U. States.—We have received the following letter, and taken pains to obtain the information it requests. As the subject is important to many strangers, we publish it.—N. Y. Daily Adv.

NEW YORK, 21st July, 1827.

Gentlemen—You are aware that a great many emigrants have arrived from Europe lately, in this city. A number of them have put to me such questions as the following:

1st. How long must I live in this country, before I become a citizen? My answer has been, I can't tell; some say fourteen years, some say five years, and some say only three years.

2d If I should live in the United States fourteen years, five years, or three years, and not declare my intentions, can I become a citizen till the number of years expire after I declare my intention? My answer is, I am not certain.

3d If a young man comes here when he is 19 years old, does he become a citizen when he is 21, without declaring his intentions at all? I can't tell.

Will you have the goodness gentlemen, to clear these questions up, at your leisure, and oblige a subscriber? Your servant A SCOTCHMAN.

The following replies to the above questions we have obtained from satisfactory authority.

Answer to first question.—Five years residence is required.

To second question.—There must be a five years' residence after a declaration of intention to become a citizen, although a person may have previously resided any number of years.

To the third question.—A person arriving in this country, not over the age of eighteen, can become a citizen two years after arriving at the age of twenty-one, (say at the age of twenty-three years,) without having made a previous declaration.

The Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland "offer a premium of 100 dollars for the best dissertation on the means of preventing the diseases incident to the lands and marshy grounds in the state of Maryland. Dissertations to be transmitted, post paid, to any of the committee, on or before the 1st of May 1828. Each candidate will prefix to his essay a motto, which must likewise be written on the outside of a sealed packet containing the author's name and address. All Essays, except the successful one, will be returned if desired."

A mineral spring has been discovered in Jacob street, New-York. In medicinal qualities it is said to be superior to the waters of Ballstown. It was reached by boring; previous, however, to obtaining it, a stratum (if that is proper) of perfectly salt water was passed.

Deported Slaves.—The Board of Commissioners under the Convention with Great Britain for the adjustment of the article of the Treaty of Ghent, respecting indemnification for deported slaves, have met in Washington City, to carry into effect the objects of their appointment. These Commissioners, our readers will recollect are LANGDON CHEVES, of Pennsylvania, JAMES PLEASANTS, of Virginia, and HENRY SEAWELL, North Carolina. The Clerk of the Commission is AARON OGDEN of New Jersey.

Visitors to Niagara Falls.—The York (U. C.) Observer, of the 9th inst. gives the following description of visitors then resident at Brown's spacious and elegant hotel, who had come to view the Niagara Falls: A Swiss Colonel, three consuls, two of Bonaparte's Legion of honor; Hamburg—Madras Ceylon, Sidney, (N. S. Wales) British, Spanish, and Haytien merchants; a Mank's lawyer—a family from Constantinople—Gentlemen from Berlin, Moscow, Madrid, Madeira and Malta—five from Ireland—three from Scotland and four from England, all highly pleased with the splendid entertainments afforded by the enterprising proprietor of the Ontario House. In the piazzas may be seen at times, exiled monarchs, Republican Generals, European Ambassadors, Whigs, Tories, Radicals, and Royalists, and naval and military officers of almost every nation in Europe, who come to view the mighty and indescribable works of the God of nature displayed at the Falls.

There is a very large manufactory of mill saws in Philadelphia, at which it is said they are made one third cheaper than they can be imported at, and so much better that persons, who know the value of an American saw would give one third more for it.
